

GDPR compliance Status Tyncan Learning

We provide confirmation that TynCan Learning either complies with the GDPR or is working towards compliance.

We confirm that:

- The new EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into force on 25 May 2018 (including in the UK regardless of its decision to leave the EU) and will impact every organisation which holds or processes personal data. It will introduce new responsibilities, including the need to demonstrate compliance, more stringent enforcement and substantially increased penalties than the current Data Protection Act (DPA) which it will supersede.

TynCan Learning is committed to high standards of information security, privacy and transparency. We place a high priority on protecting and managing data. The company will comply with applicable GDPR regulations when they take effect in 2018, including as a data processor, while also working closely with our customers and partners to meet contractual obligations for our procedures, products and services.

- Our timetable for achieving compliance with the GDPR will be in time for the enforcement date.
- Confirmation of how and where our data is stored.
- Your data is stored in the Cloud using Google Drive which is also available on company password protected devices.
- We will work with you to ensure that the way data is managed is compliant and transparent and we will strive to answer any requests for data information
- A timetable for agreeing to any legal contract changes to take GDPR compliance into effect.
- If alerted, we will aim to put right any mistaken non compliance issues as soon as possible.

Mike Carter

Managing Director